The digitally sovereign and secure AI platform

Your challenges

Artificial intelligence is rapidly becoming a key technology. Companies face the challenge of harnessing AI's potential without compromising data protection, security, or legal certainty. After all, AI solutions can only deliver their full value when they are fed sensitive, company-specific data. However, using non-European AI solutions can pose risks to intellectual property and compliance with regulations. Those who hesitate too long risk falling behind the competition.

Your benefits at a glance:

- + Cutting Edge: Be at the forefront of technology
- + Jurisdictional security & digital sovereignty
- + AI results with real added value
- + Best consumability
